Central Sands Water Action Coalition’s list of suggested organizations working for natural resource protections in Wisconsin. CSWAC was asked by a number of individuals if they could make a donation towards sustainable groundwater work. While CSWAC doesn’t accept donations, the following groups would all appreciate donor support. All donations are optional:

- 1) Clean Wisconsin works in a variety of venues, including legal challenges to protect our natural resources and the health of all Wisconsinites. Recently filed 9 lawsuits against the WI DNR over their recently granted high-capacity well permits. Online donations (tax deductible) at: <https://donatenow.networkforgood.org/cleanwisconsin?code=website> or mail:
 - Clean Wisconsin
634 W. Main Street, #300
Madison, WI 53703

- 2) Friends of the Central Sands (FOCS) provides natural resource education, stewardship, and advocacy promoting a healthy Central Sands landscape, and also has successfully challenged WPDES (water quality) permitting thru legal suits (Richfield Dairy). Online donations (tax deductible) at: <https://secure.donationpay.org/friendsofcs/> or mail:
 - Friends of the Central Sands
PO Box 56
Coloma, WI 54930

- 3) Friends of the Little Plover River (FLPR) works to restore and maintain the healthy flow of the river thru education about and wise management of the groundwater/land resources in its watershed. Contact: Barb Gifford, ph: 715-344-3539. Online donations (tax deductible) at: <http://www.friendsofthelittleploverriver.org/get-involved/contribute-become-a-member/> or mail:
